

Emergency First Aid At Work Course qualifies individuals to act as the first port of call in accidents or medical emergencies.

Course Summary

Certification: The certification logo consists of the lowercase letters 'ndtg' in a bold, sans-serif font, with a thick black swoosh underline that starts under the 'n', goes under the 'd', and then curves upwards and to the right, passing under the 't' and 'g'.

Duration: 1 DAY

Valid for: 3 YEARS

Cost: £100 ex VAT NON-MEMBER: £130 ex VAT

Details

The Emergency First Aid At Work course is designed for individuals who wish to act as the emergency first aider within the workplace. Candidates will gain a broad knowledge of the essential skills needed to give safe, prompt and effective first aid in emergency situations. This course teaches all essential emergency first aid skills from assessing an incident and implementing the recovery position to dealing with choking, seizures, wounds and burns.

What's covered:

- The roles and responsibilities of an emergency firstaider
- Assessing an incident
- Managing an unresponsive casualty
- CPR and defibrillation
- Recovery position
- Choking
- Seizures
- Shock
- Wounds & Bleeding
- Minor Injuries; cuts & scalds

Who should attend

This course is suitable for any individual wishes to take on the role of Emergency First Aider - becoming the first point of contact when an incident occurs.

Course assessment and certification

The Emergency First Aider course is assessed with both a practical and multiple choice test